

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Hurst Sale
A Letter of Appreciation

The American Security and Trust Co. of Washington, D. C., being named as the sole executor of the estate of the late Bishop John Fletcher Hurst, chose The Anderson Auction Company as the medium for the public sale of his choice collection of Books, Autographs, and Manuscripts. In due time the sales were effected, the aggregate proceeds amounting to $56,500.

In connection therewith, the following extract from an unsolicited letter received from the Executor may prove of interest:

"It seems proper that I should express to you our entire satisfaction with your management and conduct of the sale. The cataloguing, on which so much depended, was admirably done, and the amount realized was fully up to the highest estimate of the value of the collection.

I have heretofore congratulated you personally on the success of the sale, and now beg you to accept this expression of our appreciation of the excellent service rendered in this connection by your Company to ours.

Yours very truly,

JAMES F. HOOD,

Secretary."

Second edn., corrected and enlarged. Portraits, maps and views. 4to, full mottled calf, gilt. Lond.: Wm. Crooke, 1684

This famous old book stirred up great strife at the time it was published. Sir Henry Morgan brought suit for libel and secured damages for £200 in the King's Bench Court.

Copies of the early edition are rare, especially so with all the copper portraits of the old sea rovers. The frontispiece is a fine portrait of Morgan.

115. ESSEX INSTITUTE HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS. The Proceedings, Vols. 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6 (1856 to 1871); Historical Collections, Vols. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, part 2 of vol. 9, vol. 10 complete, part 4 of vol. XI, part 4 of vol. XII, and parts 2 and 3 of vol. XIII.; together with a Subject Index to the Publications of the Essex Institute, by Gardner M. Jones Folding pedigrees, portraits, engravings, etc. In the original parts. (As 16 vols.) Salem, 1856 to 1876

An unusually long series of this valuable publication, containing much genealogical, historical, and natural history information by eminent authorities. Among the interesting contributions may be mentioned: An Account of the Private Armed Vessels belonging to Salem during the War of 1812; Notes on American Currency; Craft's Journal of the Siege of Boston; The Prosecution of Ann Pudeator for Witchcraft, 1692; The Exploration of the Merrimack River in 1638; Notes on Old Modes of Travel, etc. Among the genealogies are accounts of the Hopkins, Holyoke, Derby, Newhall, Richardson, Webb, Russell, Peele, Hutchinson, Higginson, Ward, and other prominent New England families. The proceedings of the first three volumes are about equally divided between historical and scientific articles. No set of the Essex Historical Collections can be considered complete without the earlier publications in the Proceedings.

Extract from the Will of Edmond de Goncourt:
(Trans.)

"My wish is that my Drawings, my Prints, my Curiosities, my Books—in a word these things of art which have been the joy of my life—shall not be consigned to the cold of a museum, and subjected to the stupid glance of a careless passer-by; but I require that they shall all be dispersed under the hammer of the Auctioneer, so that the pleasure which the acquiring of each one of them has given me shall be given again, in each case, to some inheritor of my own tastes."
